浴衣

It's worn in the summer. The material isn't thick.
So it's good for the hot Japanese summers.

夏祭り

It's a summer tradition. It's very lively. There are food and games.
Sometimes there are special parades and dancing.

風鈴

It hangs on your balcony. When there is a breeze, it makes a nice sound. And you feel cool in the summer.

けん玉

It has a ball, a string and three cups.
People try to swing the ball into one of the cups.

歩行者天国

It's closed to cars. So it's a street for people, especially shoppers. It happens on weekends or national holidays.

七夕

We write down our wishes on strips of fancy paper.
And we put them on the bamboo trees.
